

May Day Celebration

Live Music and Speeches

Capitalists and their governments, under the mantra of neoliberalism and the banner of globalization, have been imposing modern forms of barbaric slavery on workers around the world.

Workers need a fighting tradition and the strongest solidarity more than ever before.

Workers in Iran are struggling against all odds for the formation of their independent class organizations. On this May Day we, as labour activists, also vow to build worker to worker solidarity with the labour movement in Iran.

Speakers:

- Iliam Burbano, Chair, CUPE Ontario International Solidarity Committee & President of CUPE Local 3393
- Farid C. Partovi, International Alliance in Support of Workers in Iran and CUPE Local 4772
- Kabir Tokhi, Poet and a long-time communist activist from Afghanistan

Sunday, May 4, 2008

6 to 12 pm

Steel Workers Hall

25 Cecil Street

(College and Spadina)

May Day Organizing Committee-Toronto

For more information: 416 388 4595